

Scott A. Kreider

Scott A. Kreider is a trial and appellate attorney. With nearly a decade of legal experience in state and federal trial and appellate courts, Scott is confident assisting clients with efficiently resolving disputes and potential disputes without resorting to trial or, if the need arises, at trial and on appeal. He is a general litigator focusing on civil and business litigation disputes.

Scott has a B.A. in Political Science with minors in Philosophy and Sports Studies from Indiana State University and a J.D. from Indiana University School of Law – Indianapolis.

Education & Qualifications

- Indiana University School of Law – Indianapolis, J.D. cum laude, 2001; Order of Barristers
- Indiana State University, B.A. summa cum laude, 1998; Alan C. Rankin Distinguished Senior Award
- Admitted to Indiana Bar, 2001
- Admitted to U.S. District Court, Northern and Southern Districts of Indiana, 2001
- Admitted to U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Michigan, 2009 (Unsworn)
- Admitted to U.S. Court of Appeals, Seventh Circuit, 2002
- Admitted to U.S. Supreme Court, 2005
- Law Clerk, The Hon. Larry J. McKinney, U.S. Dist. Ct., S.D. Ind., 2006-2008
- Law Clerk, The Hon. William T. Lawrence, U.S. Dist. Ct., S.D. Ind., 2008-2009
- Adjunct Professor, LARC I & II, Indiana University School of Law – Indianapolis, 2007-2008
- Deputy Attorney General, 2001-2004

Memberships

- Indianapolis Bar Association
- Past Member of Indiana State Bar Association
- Past Member of Federal Bar Association

Community Involvement

- Precinct Committeeman, Perry Township
- Vice Ward Chair, Perry Township
- Perry Township Advisory Board Member